We have to let the Burnside Hotel know numbers as soon as possible so please sign up using the sheets at the back of the church if you wish to attend.

RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

There have been a number of incidents recently where the Blessed Sacrament has been dropped on the floor during the distribution of Holy Communion. Whilst we acknowledge that accidents happen we encourage you to take particular care when receiving Our Blessed Lord in Communion. If receiving in your hands we kindly ask that you hold out your hands, with your left hand placed on top of your right hand, this way there is no ambiguity as to which hand you want to receive Communion in. We have been asked about receiving on the tongue, this is encouraged, as is receiving kneeling, if possible. Please do not feel rushed, take as much time as you need. If you are carrying a child in your arms please receive Communion on your tongue. If the Blessed Sacrament is dropped, the priest or Eucharistic Minister will step forward to protect the area where it has been dropped so that Communion can continue and the floor will be purified after Communion.
