Hanging from the ceiling in the porch is the Rutherglen 900 origami peace cranes art work titled, 'The Cultural Flow of Immigration', a colourful visualisation of the immigrants who have come to make Rutherglen their home. Spearheaded by Dr Janice Ross, and made by exiled Turkish women. The materials were funded by a small grant from Rutherglen Rotary Club.

NOVENA TO THE LITTLE FLOWER

The Novena concludes on Monday 26th October with Holy Mass and Sacrament of the Sick. Please note there will be no 10am or 1pm Mass, the church will be open all day for Eucharistic Adoration. Roses will be available for purchase before Mass and will be blessed during Mass (£1/stem sold in bunches of 6, some single roses available). Parking is available on Greenhill St (the site of the old swimming baths) or on the Main St. Refreshments will be served in the hall afterwards. Access to the hall is via the lane which runs parallel to Kirkwood St. We are expecting this Mass to be busy so please arrive in plenty of time and be guided by the stewards as to where to sit.

"We can never have too much confidence in the good God... As we hope in Him so shall we receive."

HALL SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Parish Fundraising Committee invite you to contribute to the Hall Refurbishment through our "Sponsor a Brick" campaign. For a donation of £50, your name (or the name of a loved one, living or deceased) can be printed on the project Sponsor Board. The board will be displayed in the main porch at the entrance to the hall. Application packs with details are available at the back of the church. FUNERALS FROM £959

As the 10th generation of a Rutherglen family who has served this area since 1811 providing funeral service and bereavement support, I am pleased to offer all our community the best of care at a difficult time.

Although our original business passed from family ownership in 2011, I've always had the continuing desire to be able to provide a quality service with my own name over the door.

I promise that the families who place their trust in Scott Munn & Co. to assist them at the difficult time of bereavement will sense our dedication to personal care and attention.

I hope you will find a difference because we are different, family owned, and family focused.
